Part III – Standard Conditions of RFP

The bidder is required to give confirmation of their acceptance of the standard conditions of the Request for Proposal mentioned below which shall be considered as part of the contract concluded with the successful Bidder (i.e. Seller in the Contract).

1. Law: The contract shall be considered and made in accordance with the laws of the Republic of India. The contract shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Republic of India.

2. Effective Date of the Contract: The contract shall come into effect on the date of signatures of both the parties on the contract (effective date) or as mentioned in the contract document and shall remain valid until the completion of the obligations of the parties under the contract. The performance of the services shall commence from the effective date of the contract.

3. Arbitration: All disputes or differences arising out of or in connection with the contract shall be settled by bilateral discussions. Any dispute, disagreement or question arising out of or relating to the contract or relating to execution or performance, which cannot be settled amicably, may be resolved through arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (26 of 1996) or any statutory modifications or re-enactment thereof and the rules made thereunder and for the time being in force shall apply to the arbitration proceeding under this clause.

 4. Penalty for use of Undue influence: The seller undertakes that he has not given, offered or promised to give, directly or indirectly, any gift, consideration, reward, commission, fees, brokerage or inducement to any person in service of the buyer or otherwise in procuring the contracts or forbearing to do or for having done or forborne to do any act in relation to the obtaining or execution of the present contract or any other contract with the Government of India for showing or forbearing to show favour or dis-favour to any person in relation to the present contract or any other contract with the Government of India. Any breach of the aforesaid undertaking by the Seller or any one employed by him or acting on his behalf (whether with or without the knowledge of the Seller) or the commission of any offers by the seller or anyone employed by him or acting on his behalf, as defined in Chapter IX of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 or the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1986 or any other Act enacted for the prevention of corruption shall entitle the buyer to cancel the contract and all or any other contracts with the seller and recover from the seller the amount of any loss arising from such cancellation. A decision of the buyer or his nominee to the effect that a breach of the undertaking had been committed shall be final and binding on the seller. giving or offering of any gift, bribe or inducement or any attempt at any such act on behalf of the seller towards any officer/employee of the buyer or to any other person in a position to influence any officer/employee of the buyer for showing any favour in relation to this or any other contract, shall render the seller to such liability/ penalty as the buyer may deem proper, including but not limited to termination of the contract, imposition of penal damages, forfeiture of the bank guarantee and refund of the amounts paid by the buyer.

5. Agents / Agency Commission: The seller confirms and declares to the buyer that the seller has not engaged any individual or firm, whether Indian or foreign whatsoever, to intercede, facilitate or in any way to recommend to the Government of India or any of its functionaries, whether officially or unofficially, for the award of the contract to the seller; nor has any amount been paid, promised or intended to be paid to any such individual or firm in respect of any such intercession, facilitation or recommendation. The seller agrees that if it is established at any time to the satisfaction of the buyer that the present declaration is in any way incorrect or if at a later stage it is discovered by the buyer that the seller has engaged any such individual/firm, and paid or intended to pay any amount, gift, reward, fees, commission or consideration to such person, party, firm or institution, whether before or after the signing of this contract, the seller will be liable to refund that amount to the buyer. The seller will also be debarred from entering into any contract with the Government of India for a minimum period of five years. The buyer will also have a right to consider cancellation of the contract either wholly or in part, without any entitlement or compensation to the seller who shall in such an event be liable to refund all payments made by the buyer in terms of the contract along with interest at the rate of 2% per annum above LIBOR rate. The buyer will also have the right to recover any such amount from any contracts concluded earlier with the Government of India.

 In case it is found to the satisfaction of the buyer that the seller has engaged an agent or paid commission or influenced any person to obtain the contract as described in clauses relating to agents/agency commission and penalty for use of undue influence, the seller, on a specific request of the buyer, shall provide necessary information/ inspection of the relevant financial documents/information.

6. Non-disclosure of Contract documents: Except with the written consent of the buyer/ seller, other party shall not disclose the contract or any provision, specification, plan, design, pattern, sample or information thereof to any third party.

7. Liquidated Damages: In the event of the Seller's failure to submit the Bonds, Guarantees and Documents etc. as specified in this contract, the Buyer may, at his discretion, withhold any payment or part of payment until the completion of the contract. In case of delay in completion of work, penalty @ 0.5% of the contract value per day will be deducted from the bill. Such penalty should, however, will not be exceeding 10% of the total contract value.

8. Termination of Contract: NIA shall have the right to terminate this contract in part or in full in any of the following cases:-

- (a) The delivery of stores is delayed due to causes of Force Majeure by more than 15 days provided Force Majeure clause is included in contract.
- (b) The delivery of the stores is delayed for causes not attributable to Force Majeure for more than 10 days after the schedule date of start.
- (c) The seller is declared bankrupt or becomes insolvent.
- (d) The buyer has noticed that the Seller has utilized the services of any Indian/Foreign agent in getting this contract and paid any commission to such individual/company etc.
- (e) As per decision of the Arbitration Tribunal.

9. Notices: Any notice required or permitted by the contract shall be written in the english language and may be delivered personally or may be sent by FAX or registered pre-paid mail/airmail, addressed to the last known address of the party to whom it is sent.

10. Transfer and Sub-letting: The seller has no right to give, bargain, sell, assign or sublet or otherwise dispose of the contract or any part thereof, as well as to give or to let a third party take benefit or advantage of the present contract or any part thereof.

11. Amendments: No provision of present contract shall be changed or modified in any way (including this provision) either in whole or in part except by an instrument in writing made after the date of this contract and signed on behalf of both the parties and which expressly states to amend the present contract.

12. Taxes and Duties:

- 1. Price quoted should be excluding the taxes/duties. The applicable taxes should be mentioned in the relevant column provided for the purpose. In case space provided for the tax remain blank, it will be presumed that either no tax is payable or prices are inclusive of all taxes.

2. If a bidder is exempted from payment of any duty/tax upto any value of services from them, he should clearly state that no such duty/tax will be charged by him up to the limit of exemption which he may have. If any concession is available in regard to rate/quantum of any Duty/ tax, it should be brought out clearly. Stipulations like, the said duty/tax was presently not applicable but the same will be charged if it becomes leviable later on, will not be accepted unless in such cases it is clearly stated by a bidder that such duty/tax will not be charged by him even if the same becomes applicable later on. In respect of the bidders, who fail to comply with this requirement, their quoted prices shall be loaded with the quantum of such duty/tax which is normally applicable on the item in question for the purpose of comparing their prices with other bidders.
3. Any change in any duty/tax upward/downward as a result of any statutory variation taking place within contract terms shall be allowed to the extent of actual quantum of such duty/tax paid by the vendor. Similarly, in case of downward revision in any duty/tax, the actual quantum of reduction of such duty/tax shall be extended to the Buyer by the seller. All such adjustments shall include all reliefs, exemptions, rebates, concession etc. if any obtained by the seller.
4. In case any new tax or levy or cess is imposed by statute, after the last date stipulated for the receipt of tender including extensions (if any), the seller shall inform the buyer in writing within 15 days of imposition/notification of said tax and thereupon necessarily and properly pays such taxes/ levies/ cess, The seller shall be reimbursed the amount so paid, provided such payments, if any, is not, in the opinion of the competent authority (whose decision shall be final and binding on the contractor) attributable to delay in execution of work within the control of the seller. The seller shall keep necessary books of accounts and other documents for the purpose of this condition as may be necessary and shall allow inspection of the same by a duly authorized representative of the Government and shall also furnish such other information/ document as may require from time to time.

Part IV – Special Conditions

The bidder is required to give confirmation of their acceptance of special conditions of the tender mentioned below which will automatically be considered as part of the contract concluded with the successful bidder (i.e. seller in the contract) as selected by the buyer. Failure to do so may result in rejection of bid submitted by the bidder.

1. Performance Guarantee:

The bidder will be required to furnish a performance guarantee by way of bank guarantee through a public sector bank or a private sector bank authorized to conduct government business (ICICI Bank Ltd., Axis Bank Ltd or HDFC Bank Ltd.) for a sum equal to 10% of the contract value within 21 days of receipt of the confirmed order. Performance bank guarantee should be valid up to 60 days beyond the date of completion of contract period.

3. Payment Terms – The payment shall be made in the bank account of the contractor directly through e-payment mode. It is mandatory for the Bidders to provide their bank account numbers and other relevant details for payment so that payments could be made through ECS/NEFT/RTGS mechanism instead of payment through Cheque. No advance payment shall be made under any circumstances.

- (i) Receipt from the concerned officer in the location for having received the material with quantity of each item.
- (ii) Bills in triplicate should be sent later and the payment shall be released only after it is ensured that the items / quality of the items supplied are to the entire satisfaction of the department. If any item is found to be defective, or not of the desired quality etc., the same shall be replaced by the firm(s) immediately for which no extra payment shall be made. TDS shall be deducted at source at the time of payment to the contractor as per the provisions of the Income Tax Act as applicable. Service tax/GST will be as per existing laws prevalent during the contract period.

5. Risk & Expense clause:

- a) Should the services or any part thereof not be delivered within the time or times specified in the contract documents, or if poor/substandard services are provided in respect of the services or any part thereof, the Buyer shall after granting the Seller 05 days to cure the breach, be at liberty, without prejudice to the right to recover liquidated damages as a remedy for breach of contract, to declare the contract as cancelled either wholly or to the extent of such default.
 - b) Should the services or any part thereof not perform in accordance with the specifications / parameters provided by the SELLER during the contract period the BUYER shall be at liberty, without prejudice to any other remedies for breach of contract, to cancel the contract wholly or to the extent of such default.
 - c) In case of a material breach that was not remedied within 05 days after the date of notice given for that material breach, the BUYER shall, having given the right of first refusal to the SELLER be at liberty to procure from any other source as he thinks fit, other services of the same or similar description to make good:-

- I. Such default.
 - II. In the event of the contract being wholly determined the balance of the services remaining to be delivered there under.
- d) Any excess of the contract price, services procured from any other service provider as the case may be, over and above the contract price, price appropriate to such default or balance/ difference shall be recoverable from the SELLER. Such recoveries shall however, not exceed 10% of the value of the total contract."

7. SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR COMPLIANCE OF LABOUR LAWS:

1. The contractor shall at his own cost comply with the provision of labour laws, rules orders and notifications whether central or state or local as applicable to him or to this contract from time to time.

The contractor shall not engage/employ persons below the age of 18 years and shall also abide by the provisions of the Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986.

The contractor shall comply with all the provisions of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, and Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, amended from time to time and rules framed thereunder and other labour laws affecting contract labour that may be brought into force from time to time.

The Agency shall be responsible for payment of wages etc to its deployed personnel as per prevailing acts/orders as applicable under statutory laws. If any dispute arises between the agency & the employed personnel regarding wages or any other service condition, it shall be settled by the agency & the personnel engaged by it themselves. NIA shall not be a party in any such dispute. The contractor shall provide necessary insurance coverage to his workmen engaged in the execution of his contract so as to hold the NIA non-liaible for any act of contractor's workmen in case of any accident / mishap including death.

Part V – Evaluation of bids & Evaluation procedure

Evaluation Criteria - The broad guidelines for evaluation of bids will be as follows:

- (a) Only those bids will be evaluated which are found to be received by the stipulated date and time and fulfilling all the eligibility and qualifying requirements as mentioned in the tender document, both technically and commercially.

- (b) The technical bids forwarded by the bidders will be evaluated first by the Buyer with reference to the parameter mentioned in the tender documents. The price bids of only those bidders will be opened whose technical bids would found compliant after the technical evaluation.
- (c) The lowest bid will be decided upon the lowest price quoted by the particular bidder as per the price format given in the tender document.
- (d) Rates quoted by the seller in the price bid/format in figures and words shall be accurately filled in so that there shall not be any discrepancy in the rates written in figures and words. However, if a discrepancy is found, the rates which correspond with the amount worked out by the contractor shall unless otherwise proved be taken as correct.
- (e) If the amount of an item is not worked out by the contractor or it does not correspond with the rates written either in figures or in words, then the rates quoted by the contractor in words shall be taken as correct. Where the rates quoted by the contractor in figures and in words tally, but the amount is not worked out correctly, the rates quoted by the contractor will unless otherwise proved be taken as correct and not the amount.
- (f) In event no rate has been quoted for any item(s), leaving space both in figure(s), word(s), and amount blank, it will be presumed that the contractor has included the cost of this/these item(s) in other items and rate for such item(s) will be considered as zero and work will be required to be executed accordingly.
- (g) The lowest acceptable bid will be considered further for placement of contract after complete clarification and price negotiations, if required, and as decided by the buyer. The buyer may award contracts to different bidders for being lowest in particular items. The buyer also reserves the right to do apportionment of quantity, if convinced that lowest bidder is not in a position to provide the full quantity as stipulated in the tender.
- (h) Please note that in case of cutting/overwriting and use of correction fluid is noticed, the bid will be rejected. The tender documents submitted should be signed by the authorized signatory of the organization on each page of the documents which should also be serially numbered. Failure to do so will be treated as non-fulfillment of the tender conditions.
- (i) Any other criteria as applicable to suit a particular case.

EVALUATION PROCEDURE

Technical evaluations of the bids will be done by a duly constituted committee on the basis of bid documents submitted as mentioned eligibility criteria and tender document. The committee constituted by the competent authority will examine the bids to determine whether they are complete, whether any computational errors have been made, whether the documents are genuine and have been properly signed and whether the bids are generally in order. The committee shall determine the conformity of each bid w.r.t. the bidding documents. As regard to financial evaluation of the bids, the service charge quoted by the bidder as per the BOQ format will be assessed by the committee.

A team of officers from NIA may visit the office of the bidders for establishing their credibility & verification of submitted documents.

Conditional tenders/non-compliance of any of conditions set in tender document shall render the bid to disqualification. Any deviation from the clauses hidden/intentional/unintentional shall be considered as contravention of the clauses of tender document and same shall also be grounds of rejection
