Fourth Accused Arrested by NIA in Bhairamgarh CPI (Maoist) Arms Supply Case

New Delhi, 14th August 2025

The National Investigation Agency (NIA) has arrested an accused in the Bhairamgarh CPI (Maoist) arms supply case.

Aman Kesarwani was among the conspirators involved in the supply of arms & ammunitions to the cadres of the CPI(Maoist) terrorist organisation.

The case was originally registered by the local police following the arrest of five accused persons in Bhairamgarh Tehsil of Bijapur district in Chhattisgarh. The state police chargesheeted five accused persons in July 2023, followed by a supplementary chargesheet by NIA against three accused persons in April 2025 in the case RC-01/2023/NIA/RPR.

The accused persons were involved in arranging/ procuring revolvers and ammunition from Uttar Pradesh for delivery to members of CPI (Maoist) in the vicinity of Bhairamgarh Tehsil.

Investigations are on as part of NIA's to dismantle the Maoist terrorist ecosystem active in the country.
