NIA searches key suspect's Rohtak House in CPI (Maoist) NRb revival case

New Delhi, 9th December

The National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Tuesday searched the rented accommodation of a key suspect in Haryana's Rohtak area in a case relating to attempts by the CPI (Maoist) terror organisation to re-energise its influence in the Northern Region Bureau (NRB)

The search at the house of Naresh led to the seizure of two mobile phones and some handwritten documents.

NIA investigations had identified Naresh as a former member of Chhatra Ekta Manch (CEM) and a close aide of accused Priyanshu Kashyap in the case RC-01/2023/NIA/LKW. As part of the CPI (Maoist) conspiracy, Priyanshu Kashyap used to frequently visit the said premises, where he conducted meetings with the organisation's underground cadres.

The terror outfit has been concerted working towards the revival of its presence in various regions of the country, including the NRB comprising the states of Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Delhi, Punjab, Haryana and Himachal Pradesh.

Investigations in the instant case are continuing.
