NIA files charges against main shooters in terrorist Arsh Dala linked Neemrana hotel firing case

New Delhi, 3rd January 2026

The National Investigation Agency (NIA) has filed charges against the two main shooters in the 2024 Neemrana hotel firing case linked with Khalistani terrorist Arsh Dala.

The arrested accused, Puneet and Narinder Lalli, have been chargesheeted for various offences under the Bhartiya Nyay Sanhita, the Arms Act and the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act. The Punjab-based shooters had carried out the actual firing, and were also involved in threatening and demanding extortion from the owners of Highway King Hotel, Neemrana (Haryana).

With this, a total of nine accused have so far been charge sheeted in the case RC 01/2024/ NIA/JPR, in which investigation is continuing. *

The attack at the hotel was carried out in September 2024 by the terrorist-gangster syndicate of Khalistan Tiger Force (KTF) led by designated individual terrorist Arshdeep Singh alias Arsh Dala and the Bambiah gang. Gang members Dinesh Gandhi and Saurabh Kataria were responsible for the planning of the attack, which was executed by Puneet and Narinder, who had the protection of Dala and Gandhi.

NIA, during investigation, uncovered the role of Puneet and Narinder, who had used prohibited weapons in the attack and had also issued a threat on behalf of the syndicate. It was further found that the duo had been receiving funds, shelter and weapons from the syndicate on a sustained basis in a bid to promote KTF's objectives.
