NIA CHARGESHEETS 9TH ACCUSED IN BKI-LINKED GURUGRAM CLUBS' BOMBING CASE.

New Delhi, 19th March 2026

The National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Thursday filed charges against one more accused in the 2024 case relating to the bomb attacks at two Gurugram clubs by members of the proscribed Babbar Khalsa International (BKI) terror outfit.

Ramdutt is the ninth accused to be chargesheeted in the case, connected with Canada-based designated terrorist Satinderjit Singh @ Goldy Brar. NIA, which has filed a supplementary chargesheet against him before its Special Court in Panchkula (Haryana), has found him to be linked with Goldy Brar's close aide Rohit Godara and foreign-based gangster Randeep Malik.

NIA, which had in 2025 chargesheeted Goldy Brar and seven others in this case, has charged Ramdutt under relevant provisions of UA (P) Act. The agency's investigation has revealed the arrested accused to be a part of a larger terror syndicate and a key facilitator of the syndicate members. Ramdutt had allegedly provided a safe hideout near Chambal area to a chargesheeted accused who was involved in hurling explosives at the two clubs, NIA discovered during the course of its investigation.

The Warehouse Club and Human Club in Sector-29, Gurugram (Haryana), were attacked on 10th December 2024. NIA, which had taken over the probe soon after the terror bombing, has uncovered a major conspiracy by a wider network of operatives working under the direction of overseas terror handlers.

The counter-terror agency is continuing with its investigation to identify other conspirators and trace the financial channels involved in the conspiracy, with the aim to dismantle the terror network operating in the region.
