ONE PERSON HAILING FROM KERALA ARRESTED FOR INVOLVEMENT IN ISIS INSPIRED TERRORIST CONSPIRACY MODULE. (Case No. RC-05/2016/NIA/KOC-Omar Al-Hindi ISIS Case)

Today, NIA has arrested one Mouinudheen Parakadavath, 25 yrs s/o Abdulla Theruvath, r/o Kunnummel, Lakshmi Nagar, Kanhangad, Kasaragod district, Kerala for his involvement in the terrorist conspiracy ISIS module, at New Delhi. He was wanted in the case no. RC-05/2016/NIA/KOC. Accused Mouinudheen arrived at the IGI Airport on 14.02.2017 from Abu Dhabi and he was summoned to the NIA Hqrs on 15.02.2017. During his examination, he admitted to his involvement in the conspiracy and therefore, he has been arrested today at NIA Hqrs.

2. The case relates to a terror module in which a group of youths from Kerala including some members based in the Middle-East, hatched a conspiracy as per the instructions from their online ISIS handlers. On 2nd October, 2016 based on the intelligence inputs, five accused, associated with this terror module, were arrested from Kanakmala Hill in Kannoor district, Kerala and another associate was arrested from Calicut the same day. Based on their revelation, it was established that Mouinudheen was a key figure in the module, which was actively planning various aspects of terrorist plot, on a Telegram group. Mouinudheen was using the online identity Abu-Al-Indonesi as well as Ibn Abdullah, on the telegram group. It was also revealed by the arrested persons that Mouinudheen had sent funds from Abu Dhabi to members of the terrorist module in Kerala, for purposes of the conspiracy, through Western Union Money Transfer, last year.

3. The arrested person shall be produced tomorrow before the NIA Special Court New Delhi, seeking transit remand, to take him to Kerala, to produce him before the NIA Special Court, Kerala.
