NIA ARRESTS LEADER OF CPI (MAOIST) LINKED FRONT IN CHHATTISGARH TERROR FUNDING CASE

New Delhi, 28th February

A top leader of a frontal organisation linked with the banned CPI (Maoist) terrorist outfit has been arrested by the National Investigation Agency (NIA) in a Chhattisgarh terror funding case.

Raghu Midiyami, leader of Moolwasi Bachao Manch (MBM), was taken into custody by NIA on Thursday in the case RC-02/2023/NIA/RPR. MBM is also banned by the Government of Chhattisgarh.

The Chhattisgarh Police had earlier, in November 2023, arrested and chargesheeted two accused in the case, which was taken over by NIA in February 2024. The police had recovered Rs 6 lakhs cash from the duo, identified as members / OGWs (Over Ground Workers) of MBM.

Subsequent investigations had revealed Raghu Midiyami to be the leader of MBM. The outfit has been engaged in collection, storage and disbursal of funds for CPI (Maoist), for furthering their anti-India agenda. As per NIA investigations, Raghu Midiyami was the nodal person for distribution of the funds at the local level for staging and sustaining CPI (Maoist) led protests.

Further investigations are continuing in the case.
