

13th NIA Day celebrations held at BR Ambedkar International Centre, New Delhi

1. Today (21.04.2022) the 13th NIA Day was celebrated in the presence of the Union Minister for Home and Cooperation Shri Amit Shah. MoS Home Shri Ajay Kumar Mishra and Shri Nisith Pramanik had graced the occasion along with DIB Shri Aravind Kumar, Secretary (R) Shri Samant Goel and CP Delhi Shri Rakesh Asthana, DCBI Shri Subodh Kumar Jaiswal and senior officials of the CAPFs, CPOs and Ministries posted in Delhi.
2. The celebration marked the medal investiture ceremony of 22 officials of the NIA (3 for Distinguished Service, 9 for Meritorious Service, 8 recipients of UHM Medal for Excellence in Investigation and 2 recipients of UHM Medal for Excellence in Training).
3. Speaking on the occasion DG NIA, Shri Kuldip Singh briefed about the progress of NIA since its formation and shared about the impact of NIA towards terror related offences and the steps taken by the Government to strengthen NIA.
4. While congratulating the medal winners, UHM Shri Amit Shah appreciated the qualitative investigation of NIA achieved in a short period of 13 years. He also appreciated the conviction rate of the NIA which stands at 93.25% as on date and asked the organization to set out its goals for 2047 in a way that NIA makes a mark both nationally and internationally. He emphasized on the requirement for scientific investigation for evidence collection and on institutionalisation of procedures and processes developed by NIA. He also directed NIA to coordinate with other agencies involved in countering terrorism and pitch resources for creation of a National database of information pertaining to terrorists and terrorism.
