NIA RAIDS MULTIPLE LOCATIONS IN PUNJAB & RAJASTHAN IN TERRORIST-ORGANISED CRIMINAL SYNDICATES NEXUS CASE

In a massive crackdown on the terrorist and organised criminal syndicates nexus, the National Investigation of India (NIA) on Tuesday raided multiple locations in Punjab and Rajasthan.

Extensive searches were conducted across 14 locations in Punjab and 2 in Rajasthan. The raids started in the morning in the districts of Amritsar, Bhatinda, Moga, Sangrur and Kapurthala in Punjab and Churu and Hanumangarh in Rajasthan.

Several persons were taken in for questioning and examination for their involvement in terrorist activities. Several digital devices, mobile phones and incriminating documents were seized, which are being examined.

The searches are expected to provide vital leads in the ongoing investigations into the terrorist-organised criminal syndicate nexus.
