NIA CONDUCTS SEARCHES IN JHARKHAND IN CPI (MAOIST) COURIER CASE, SEIZES INCRIMINATING MATERIAL

The National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Thursday conducted extensive searches at the premises of various suspects and over ground workers (OGWs) of the banned CPI (Maoist) outfit in Jharkhand's West Singhbhum district.

Several incriminating material, including mobile phones, documents and letters, were seized during the searches, conducted at four locations.

The NIA action came in a case (RC-03/2023/NIA/RNC) linked with the arrest of three OGWs who were working as courier for CPI (Maoist). The trio had been apprehended in July 2022 from Bera Kenduda School in West Singhbhum district, and an incriminating letter had been found in their possession, which led the NIA to crack down against other OGWs and suspects in the district.

NIA's investigation in the case, which it had taken over in August last year, is continuing.
