NIA Chargesheets 6th Accused in CPI (Maoist) Magadh Zone Revival Case

New Delhi, 3rd December 2024

The National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Monday chargesheeted another accused in the Magadh (Zone) CPI (Maoist) revival attempts case.

Binod Shankar @ Vinod Shankar Singh, a resident of Kaimur district of Bihar, is the 6th accused to be chargesheeted in the case (RC-27/2023/NIA/DLI).

A supplementary chargesheet has been filed against him under various sections of IPC and UA(P) Act before the NIA Special Court, Patna.

The accused has several previous criminal cases registered against him in various police stations in various parts of district Aurangabad.

NIA had earlier chargesheeted five other accused persons in the case, registered on 26th September 2023 in connection with the attempts of the proscribed terrorist organization CPI (Maoist) to revive Naxalism in Magadh zone of Bihar.

As per NIA investigations, Binod was an active member of CPI (Maoist), and was involved in propagating the banned terrorist organisation's anti-national ideology. In collaboration with other chargesheeted accused persons, he was working to radicalise gullible youth. He was also working as a courier between the cadres of CPI (Maoist).

Further investigations in the case are continuing.
