

NIA Arrests Mohammad Gufran in RC-38/2018/NIA/DLI, ISIS Conspiracy Case

Today (20-4-19) NIA has arrested Mohammad Gufran S/o Zubair, r/o Village Banskhedhi, PS Naugawan Sadat, Distt Amroha, UP in Case No. RC-38/2018/NIA/DLI. He is 13th accused to have been arrested in the case. During investigation, role of said accused person had surfaced as one of the key conspirators in planning to carry out terrorist attacks in Delhi NCR and UP.

2. Arrested accused Mohammad Gufran was inspired by ideology of ISIS which is a Proscribed organization under UAPA and formed a pro-ISIS module namely Harkat Ul Harb-e-Islam with the help of accused persons arrested earlier to wage war against Government of India.
3. Investigation revealed that he was instrumental in procurement of arms and ammunition and also explosives to carry out terrorist attacks in Delhi NCR and UP.
4. Twelve accused persons have earlier been arrested in the case.
5. The said case pertains to a group of Pro-IS terrorists who formed a terrorist gang which was engaged in acts preparatory to commission of terror attacks with a view to wage war against the Government of India. The group was found to be inspired by ideology of ISIS and was conspiring and preparing to target places of importance in and around National Capital Territory of Delhi. It was gathered that Mufti Mohd. Suhail @Hazrath @Abbasi, resident of Jafrabad, Seelampur, Delhi, was the Amir of pro-IS module who mobilized funds and procured weapons, ammunition and explosive materials to prepare IEDs etc with his other associates.
6. Accused Mohammed Gufran will be produced before the Court, Patiala House, New Delhi tomorrow.
