

NIA Arrests Mohd Faiz in RC 38/2018/NIA/DLI, ISIS Conspiracy Case

On (23.04.2019), NIA arrested Mohd Faiz S/o Mohd Habib, r/o Jafrabad, Garhi Mendu, Delhi – 53 in Case No. RC-38/2018/NIA/DLI. He is 14th accused to have been arrested in the case. During investigation, role of said accused person has surfaced as one of the key conspirators in planning to carry out terrorist attacks in Delhi NCR and UP.

2. Mohd. Faiz was found to be a main member of the Pro-IS module Harkat-Ul-Harb-E-Islam, who was instrumental in bringing other members besides founding the group. Investigation has revealed that he was closely involved in the procurement of arms and ammunition for the group to carry out terrorist acts in and around National Capital Region.

3. The said case pertains to a group of Pro-IS terrorists who formed a terrorist gang which was engaged in acts preparatory to commission of terror attacks with a view to wage war against the Government of India. The group was found to be inspired by ideology of ISIS and was conspiring and preparing to target places of importance in and around National Capital Territory of Delhi. It was gathered that Mufti Mohd. Suhail @Hazrath @Abbasi, resident of Jafrabad, Seelampur, Delhi, was the Amir of pro-IS module, who mobilized funds and procured weapons, ammunition and explosive materials to prepare IEDs etc. with other associates.

4. Accused Mohd Faiz will be produced before the Court, Patiala House, New Delhi tomorrow (24/04/2019).
