

NIA Conducts Search in Uttar Pradesh and Arrests an Accused in Case of Human Trafficking (RC-05/2021/NIA/GUW)

Today (22.06.2022), NIA conducted search at one location in Deoband, Distt. Saharanpur, Uttar Pradesh and arrested an accused in RC-05/2021/NIA/GUW.

2. The case relates to illegal trafficking of Rohingya and Bangladeshi Muslims into Indian territory and settling them with forged documents in various parts of the country. This case was registered suo-moto by NIA on 27.12.2021. Earlier NIA had filed chargesheet against 06 accused persons on 04.06.2022 in this case.
3. During the search conducted today digital devices (mobile hand set, SIM cards, memory card) and other incriminating documents have been seized.
4. During investigation, involvement of arrested accused Mazid Ullah, s/o Habibullah, r/o Sabila Farika, PO-Mangru, Arkan, Myanmar in the conspiracy of transportation of trafficked persons to different places in India, had emerged. He was arrested from Deoband, Distt. Saharanpur, Uttar Pradesh today.
5. Further investigation in the case continues.
